ACQ VIEWS

NEWS &amp; UPDATES FROM ARAPAHOE COUNTY QUILTERS • AUG 2017

Dedicated to ACQ

ACQ Member Ann Petersen has a quilt published in Flying Geese: New Quilts from an Old Favorite. During July's Show & Tell, Ann read her dedication and gave us permission to reprint it here.

"Quilting and sewing are family traditions and I learned much about both from my mom and grandmothers. Their work has always been inspirational. But I was mostly a crafter and garment sewer with an occasional quilt from a pattern thrown in until well into the mid-1990s.

Then one day, with a little more than an hour to spare before my son returned from school, I passed a street banner advertising a quilt show. On a whim, I turned into the lot and went to see the Arapahoe County Quilters Festival of Quilts. I fell in love. I have always loved geometric quilting patterns and color and fabric, but these quilts were so dynamic!

Notes from the President: Inspiration, Motivation and Encouragement

Hello Fellow Quilters,

I hope you are all taking advantage of the warm weather and staying inside to quilt in the cool of your studios. I've been very busy trying to finish up tops completed at the retreat I went to. I'm hoping by next month I have something to show.

I'm also putting the binding on a Charitable Quilt. I encourage all of you to take something from our Charitable Committee and help them complete quilts for the many charities we contribute to. You can practice your machine quilting on a fairly small project or sew on a binding and complete a quilt. Nothing feels greater than knowing you've just contributed to the happiness of a needy organization and the people they help.

I hope you all enjoyed Tamara Leberer last month as she showed us her techniques on Silk Fusion. I for one really enjoyed the lecture. I've tried this myself and it was really fun and very easy to do. Now I just need to figure out what to do with the piece. I liked her samples of stitching on Felt so I might try that.

Next month we are welcoming Cynthia England – Pictorial Piecing. If you don't like ripping out paper when you paper-piece then you'll enjoy her technique. The class is full, but I'm sure we'll all pick up some tips during her lecture.

Remember we are having Root Beer Floats next month. Come one, come all and bring a friend. This is a great organization. Let's share the love with others.

Happy August,

Kelly Collins
President

How Likely Are You . . . ?

The ACQ Board is looking ahead to 2018 and wondering what kind of events and activities you might participate in. Please take this quick survey and let us know your interest levels. Thanks.

ACQ's Mission

We are a group of individuals who already like to quilt, or would like to start, who want to grow and learn more about quilting, and who want to enjoy the fellowship and friendship of other quilters. This group is not exclusive to the makers of quilts, but includes all who find interest and worth in the collection and preservation of our fiber arts and heritage.

Cynthia England

Guild Meeting: Pictorial Piecing

August 10 • 6:50 pm • First Plymouth Congregational Church

Come for an entertaining slide presentation showing the process of making pictorial quilts using Cynthia England's "Picture-piecing" technique. Enlarging the design, fabric selection, and organizational methods will be discussed.

Join us for fun, friendship and inspiration

Workshop: Pictorial Piecing

August 11 • 10:00 am • Holly's Quilt Cabin

Learn the innovative "Picture Piecing" technique that uses only straight lines and no insets while making a colorful bird feeder.

Cynthia England is a graduate of the Art Institute of Houston and has been creating quilts for more than thirty years.

Experimenting with quilting techniques led her to develop her own unique style "Picture Piecing".

Cynthia's quilts have been honored with many awards, including three Best of Shows at the prestigious International Quilt Association, as well as Viewer's Choice at the American Quilter's Society. Her quilt, Piece and Quiet, was distinguished as one of the Hundred Best Quilts of the 20th Century.

Cynthia teaches and lectures nationally and internationally. To date, she has shared her techniques at quilting events in South Africa, Taiwan, Japan, South Korea, Germany, Canada, Australia, Spain and Mexico. In addition, she is the designer and owner of England Design Studios, a publishing/pattern company that specializes in the "Picture Piecing" technique. She has over 50 patterns that use this technique.

News from the Library Corner

Marianne Duer and Ann Roman

We have added some new books to the library. Recent additions include these titles. A complete list of books in the ACQ Library is available on the ACQ website. If you are interested in a specific title, contact Marianne or Ann.

Simply Retro with Camille Roskelley

Camille puts a brand new spin on traditional-block quilting. By exploring modern print combinations and employing innovative techniques such as supersizing blocks, Roskelley offers a fresh interpretation of classic blocks in 12 achievable projects. Simple enough for beginners, all of the projects are easy to piece using precuts, yardage, and scrap fabrics.

Zen Chic Inspired: A Guide to Modern Quilt Design by Brigitte Heitland

Quilter and interior-design expert Brigitte Heitland shows you how to use the unique colors and decor elements in your favorite rooms to inspire quilts that will be right at home.

- You don't have to be an interior designer to make a modern quilt that's the highlight of your living space—Brigitte explains it all

Get instant inspiration with 12 patterns ranging from simple piecing to clever applique and patchwork projects

Tula Pink's City Sampler – 100 Modern Quilt Blocks

Tula gives you an inspiring quilt block collection. Make a beautiful, modern quilt of your own design with the 100 original quilt blocks or try one of the 5 city-themed sampler quilts designed by Tula.

Silk Fusion by Tamara Leberer

Whether you're a seasoned artist, sewist, quilter—or a newcomer who wants to learn a new art form—Tamara Leberer takes you step-by-step through the process of creating silk fusion. You'll learn to:

- Layer silk fibers and fuse them with textile medium.
- Design and assemble gorgeous mosaics.
- Add specialty fibers that sparkle
- Use silk fusion in a variety of projects

Tamara provided an informative presentation at our July meeting and shared her beautiful art pieces.

Library Reminders

- Books can be checked out for up to 2 months.
- Please be sure to return books in the marked box at the library table at the back of the room.
- Please consider donating to ACQ any quilt books you no longer need. We will help them find a new home during our book sale. Please include a note that the books are for donation and please include your name. We would like to recognize all who donate to the book sale.

We need your input: What new books would you like to see for the library?

Charitable Quilts: A Note from Linda

Linda Wilson, Barb Shorey & Sheila Clark

Did you know that our charity quilts help qualify us to be a non-profit organization? Did you know that you do not have to complete an entire quilt for the charitable committee? Did you know you can just piece a top? Did you know that charity quilts do not need to be quilted on a long-arm machine? We invite you to donate fabric, blocks, tops and finished quilts.

We will have kits and quilts that need binding at the August meeting. If you have any questions, please email us or stop by the table. See you August 10, 2017.

Charitable Quilts Challenge

We challenge every member and every bee to help complete an ACQ Charitable Quilt in the coming year:

- Piecing a top
- Quilting a top
- Binding a quilt

What can YOU do this year to comfort others?

ACQ Gets Inquiries

There is a general Contact Us form on the ACQ website. Recently there have been a variety of inquiries from non-members asking for resources to have a quilt made or that they have something to sell. We will be recommending that people post these inquiries on our Facebook page. Be sure to like ACQ on Facebook if you'd like to see these inquiries. www.facebook.com/ArapahoeCountyQuilters.

Sneak Peek: 2018 Programs

Jackie Baker

As we begin scheduling out 2018, I am looking forward to hearing and learning from our speakers and classes that are already on the calendar.

January • Jill Fleming, with Smart Organizing Solutions, comes highly recommended by the Longmont Quilt Guild. Jill is a professional organizer and will share with us her unique and fun ways to organize our sewing spaces.

February • Jan Krentz, program and class to be announced

March • Flavin Glover, a new twist on an old favorite. Flavin specializes in creating new designs using log cabins. Program and class be Colorful and Creative Log Cabin Diamonds.

April • TBD

May • Fundraising Event TBD

June • Ann Shaw. The Chicken Challenge, program and class.

July • Nancy Mahoney Designs. Variety of topics and class choice of GumDrops or Feathered Star designs.

August • TBD

September • Bonnie Hunter! Bonnie has been on our schedule for 4 years and this is a much anticipated presentation and class. We are taking indications of interest on adding a second class on the Thursday of the guild meeting. Please fill out this survey <http://tinyurl.com/yb3d8fuf> and, if we get enough interest, we will have a 10 am to 4 pm class added, in addition to the already scheduled Friday class.

October • Nancy Eha-Beading and Quilt Embellishments. Nancy will be offering a beginning class on how to incorporate beading into quilt designs.

November • Linda Poole-Color Me Beautiful-Learn to color, shade, outline, and paint whimsical designed with paint on your quilts.

December • PotLuck and Sewing Item Sale/Fundraiser

Block of the Month (BOM)

Sara Bridges

Bring one or more of these blocks with you to the September meeting on 9/14/17 for the BOM drawing. Each block you bring gets one ticket in the drawing—you could go home with many blocks! Find instructions in the July newsletter for the block to bring for the August BOM drawing.

Guildford County School Block
12½" x 12½" unfinished

This is the inner square mid-assembly.

As a new member and beginner quilter, one of the best things about doing the Block of the Month and attending the Board meetings is learning about other quilters, techniques, and resources. One of those I heard about was Bonnie Hunter. I found her blog and webpage and am now hooked (and buying her Addicted to Scraps book!) She also has on her blog free patterns and the story behind this one is really neat. Her blog is here: <http://quiltville.blogspot.com/>

[See exciting news on page 6 about Bonnie Hunter!]

I also think of September as back to school! I never started school before Labor Day growing up in Pennsylvania, so this is what I think of in September.

The instructions are in the link. From making my block, there were two areas of difficulty for me. First, in cutting the triangles of the colored fabric, I used the 4¼" square and cut two diagonals. The 2" triangle with the Easy Angle was too small. Which brings me to the second point—it is hard to line up the outer white square with the inner white triangle.

Here is the link with the block instructions:
<http://quiltville.blogspot.com/2012/08/its-guildford-county-block.html>

Materials:

I used a white on white (wavy dots – yes I have a LOT of white on white in my stash) for the yellow in the pattern, and a multi-colored primary background with letters for the blue (specifically, I used Riley Blake Colorfully Creative fabric). Think primary and coordinating colors, crayons, pencils, school houses, books, for your fabric.

Membership

Tracy Kreiling and Jan Wolfgram

Membership in ACQ is currently 293. We had 10 guests at the July meeting.

We will be printing an addendum to the roster to be distributed at the September meeting. It will include all new members since the beginning of the year and any corrections we know about. If there is a change you need to make to your listing, please send an email to Jan Wolfgram at wolfgramjc@gmail.com. Or call 720-550-7690 with your updates.

We still have lots of unclaimed membership cards. Come see us at our table to pick yours up. Having it in hand helps speed up the admission process at the meetings!

Do you save your scraps?
Or throw them away?

Ricky Rosenberger saved scraps from years of quiltmaking. She'd cut them into 4", 2" or 1" squares.

“Don’t save them—throw them away!” she urged us, showing a 2nd quilt made from her scraps.

It took her longer to pin the pieces than to sew them. “Just toss them!” But how can we throw scraps away when we see this inspiration?! #quiltscraps

Dedicated to ACQ

With such wonderful colors and intricate patterns and creative energy, I knew I would work from that moment on to learn how to make quilts like that.

It has been slow work to learn how to foster my own creativity, but I believe it is a skill someone can learn and practice and improve. I began to take quilt classes from both local and national quilters. Then I started to work at my local quilt shop and I found more inspiration from customers and fellow employees.

I joined the Arapahoe County Quilters, and I'm so grateful for the opportunities and friendship I found there. (I was far too shy to join after I saw the first show, but I really wish that I had. It took a year of working at the shop and feeling comfortable with more of the quilting community before I dared to join. That was too bad.)

The rich and varied community of quilters gives me a welcome as well as constant inspiration, all of which have allowed me to create. And there is little more rewarding than those creative moments.”

Every year the National Quilt Museum holds a contest called New Quilts from an Old Favorite, in which they pick a traditional block and issue a call for any quilter to make a contemporary or new take on that block in a quilt. In addition to prize money, the quilts are displayed at the museum for six weeks or so, during the time of the big spring Paducah Quilt Week, and a book has always been published showcasing the finalists and their quilts.

Each quilter must write a chapter explaining their quilt, inspirations and methods for the book. This year the American Quilters Society announced that they were going to discontinue publishing books and this book was one of the very last they printed and the last one in the New Quilts from an Old Favorite collection.

I have been fortunate enough to be a finalist a number of times over the years and have given tribute to both grandmothers, Mom, my friends and co-workers at the quilt shop (Great American Quilt Factory) where I worked for 15 years, and so I wanted to share what I wrote in the introductory paragraphs for my chapter this year.

—Ann Petersen

Congratulations Ann—and thank you for your years of inspiring us. The 2018 theme for the New Quilts from an Old Favorite contest is Bow Tie and 2019 is Oak Leaf & Reel. Wouldn't it be great for more ACQ members to enter this international contest? Details at www.quiltmuseum.org.

Using signup.com

ACQ is using an online signup website for our workshops, for bringing refreshments to a meeting, for selling raffle tickets at external events and for signing up for our workshops. It's an easy and efficient way to sign up—plus you'll get helpful reminders by email for everything you sign up for.

Follow these links (which you'll also find on the website and in the corresponding newsletter articles) to sign up or cancel a sign up.

- Refreshments/Hospitality: www.signup.com/go/PQFiZ7
- Selling Raffle Quilt Tickets: www.signup.com/go/Y44Mkf
- Workshop Registration: www.signup.com/go/rryrnC

Basic steps:

1. Follow the link to the activity you're interested in
2. Locate the volunteer/workshop opportunity you want to sign-up for
3. Sign-up for that volunteer/workshop opportunity

Detailed instructions for using sign.up.com are available if you need them here:

<http://tinyurl.com/jj389tw>.

Of course you can sign up for any area at the next monthly guild meeting. The “dreaded clipboard” for hospitality will be available at each meeting to sign up to be a hostess to bring treats to our meetings. Please add your e-mail address so Nathlia can send you a reminder e-mail.

ACQ Is on Facebook

Like us on Facebook to see what's going on between meetings—you'll find photos, videos, quilt humor and other interesting bits of quilt news. Go to www.facebook.com/ArapahoeCountyQuilters and click the LIKE button—then you can comment and share posts with your Facebook friends.

***NOTE: If you don't have a Facebook account, you can still go to our Facebook page www.facebook.com/ArapahoeCountyQuilters to read the latest posts, look at photos and watch videos
